NARRATIVE:

Ishou, a documented Southerner gang member, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 18. He has been convicted of assault with a deadly weapon, terrorist threats, battery, trespassing, accessory to a felony, transporting controlled substances, possession of controlled substances for sale with prior prison, disobey court order, annoying/threatening phone calls and fugitive from justice. Ishou has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a 32 month term for transporting controlled substances. Ishou was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 3rd, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Ishou absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Ishou qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for accessory to felony falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang affiliation, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
